The feast of Saints Peter and Paul is observed on June 29th. This feast day honors two martyrs of the Christian faith, St. Peter, and St. Paul. Although the church acknowledges they may not have been executed at the same time, both met death at the command of the Roman emperor — Nero. The date chosen is the traditional anniversary of their death and martyrdom. The event is a significant religious occasion in Rome, as Sts. Peter and Paul are the patron saints of Rome. Parishes around the world commemorate this day at Holy Mass.

Scared of the Dark

One afternoon a little boy was playing outdoors. He used his mother's broom as a horse and had a wonderful time playing until it got dark. He left the broom on the back porch and went inside.

His mother was cleaning up the kitchen when she realized her broom was missing. She asked her son about the broom, so he told her where it was. She then asked him to please go get it. The little boy informed his mom that he was afraid of the dark and didn't want to go out and get the broom.

His mother smiled and said, "The Lord is out there, too. Don't be afraid."

The little boy opened the back door a tiny bit and said, "Lord, if you're out there, hand me the broom."

Please pray for those in need of healing in our parishes: Adam Stewart, Al Baumstarck, Angela Florin, Blake Thene, Clara Helvig, Clint Conzemius, Connie Foltz, Deacon Mark Stenger, Dean Salo, Diana Billie, Elaine Pietsch, Heath Kinnunen, Ivy McGuire, Jean Schmitz, Jim Guck, Jim Neuerburg, Joyce Rohweller, Kacie (Pikula) Derkacht, Karen Omberg, Mary Ann Guck, Marion Jaroszewski, Melvin Hoaas, Mike Ruther, Paul Juen, Richard Bergeron, Steve & Sue Loerzel, Terry Omacht

Adoration

At St. Henry we are committed to adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. We are grateful for the opportunity to adore Him, sit with Him and thank Him for the many ways He blesses us with His love, grace and mercy and also to listen for His still small voice that is often heard in the silence of adoration. We strive to have at least 2 people with Him every hour. We thank everyone who has responded already to the invitation to "Come Be With Him." At this time we are in need of another adorer at the following times: Mondays at 11:00 AM, Tuesdays at 7:00 PM, Tuesdays at 8:00 PM and Wednesdays at 4:00 PM. Is He calling you to come be with him? If you are interested, please call Debbie at 218-298-4461 or Michael at 218-346-7030.

Stewardship as a Way of Life:

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love” (Galatians 5:13).

We like to celebrate that we are free to “live the good life.” We can do what we want, any-time we want, with no regard for laws. But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God’s work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

SAVE THE DATE: Diocesan Stewardship Day 2022 is Friday, September 16.

BISHOP KETTLER'S STATEMENT RE: U.S. SUPREME COURT'S DOBBS DECISION

Today's decision by the U.S. Supreme Court is good news for the protection and sacred dignity of human life. The right to life is one of our nation's founding principles. It also is the first principle of Catholic social teaching. Every person is created in the image and likeness of God, and God loves every single human life.

The Catholic Church gives special attention to the needs of the poor and vulnerable. This includes the child in the womb, the migrant, the ill and the elderly. All life — no matter its stage or ability — has value. Pope Francis reminds us in his encyclical letter "Laudato Si'" that "when we fail to acknowledge as part of reality the worth of a poor person, a human embryo, a person with disabilities — to offer just a few examples — it becomes difficult to hear the cry of nature itself; everything is connected." Abortion severs this connection by rejecting the gift of life — a life with no voice but a great deal of potential that will never be realized.

In our efforts to protect vulnerable life in the womb, we also must not forget that women facing crisis pregnancies are also vulnerable. They, too, need our care and assistance throughout their pregnancies and after the birth of their children. The people of our diocese have a long history of offering financial support and supplies to pregnancy centers and other organizations that serve both mother and child. I am very grateful for these efforts. They make an incredible difference in helping women choose life.

Now that the Supreme Court's ruling returns the issue of abortion to the states and access to abortion will continue in Minnesota due to a past state Supreme Court decision, we face the challenge of stepping up our educational and charitable efforts even more. I fully support the involvement of our parishes and Area Catholic Communities in programs such as "Walking with Moms in Need" (www.walkingwithmoms.com), which helps local church communities "walk in the shoes" of pregnant and parenting women by filling in service gaps that may exist. We must also redouble our advocacy for public policies that support pregnant women, strengthen families and limit any expansion of abortion. The Minnesota Catholic Conference (www.mncatholic.org) is a valuable resource for learning more about the issues and how to take action.

I ask you to take time today to pray for the lives lost to abortion, for healing for the women and men harmed by its effects, for peace in the wake of this court decision, for continued courage to stand up for a culture of life, and for a change of heart for anyone contemplating an abortion today or in the future.
